"The Evolving Security Threats: How do we Respond"

Kangaroo Lunch about terrorism in Strasbourg with Commissioner Sir Julian King, Artis Pabriks, MEP and Doru Frunzulica, MEP. Interesting aspects concerning necessary cooperation after Brexit.

During this meeting there were discussed several issues concerning security union for example the situation of frontline persons like police or customs, cooperation of intelligence, cyber attacks, arms exports, working of jurisdictional systems, migration, resources concerning security issues, lack of implementation of existing rules, abuse of financing for terrorists or terrorist networks.

There was broad consensus on a close cooperation within the European Union and also between EU27 and the United Kingdom after Brexit.
