"Green Energy Transition in the Maritime Sector"

The maritime sector and energy suppliers are putting a great effort behind research and development for the green energy transition and have already invested heavily in advanced technologies to meet their decarbonisation objectives. The Kangaroo Group is inviting MEPs, European Commission, Council, industry and academia representatives in its signature lunch event in order to discuss the different possible pathways for the decarbonisation of the sector and the support provided in this transition by the Green Deal legislative proposals.

Welcome and Chair:

Michael GAHLER MEP, President of the Kangaroo Group
